PRESBYTERIAN MINISTERS' FUND

Chapel

1. Our word today is charity.
2. Work possible to restore to the word its beauty + force that our Seems a common fault rolled gruffly first words, once our careless lips, degenerate, flung, + soon to be laid aside from all service discourse.
3. So with charity.
   a. a familiar word. As familiar as basket + clothing, Christmas stations, tags at the trees, turkeys + fancy work. charitable. organizations. bonnets, tambourines + tags.
   b. a feeble word. as feeble as thin hand holding a hollow face. arrogant word. Easier to give.
   c. An ugly word. Suitable for just. Handout, not handshake.
   d. a cold + condescending word, cruel + heartless. Free Lunches at school.
4. But I use the word out of reverence to the rich heritage it has which speaks of charity of God.
   a. Love which shares.
   b. Shares is the word, for in the dynamics of giving, receiving so easy to hurt, be hurt.
   c. N. S. opening + sharing at chr. with basket.
5. How does God do it? Is self.

YOU CAN REST INSURED WITH PRESBYTERIAN MINISTERS' FUND.

6. Shares life - Immanuel = God with us.
7. In last analysis, all one has to give = oneself.
8. But if love & are rejected where are you?
9. This is what Christmas means - God gives himself - Both your hands - quite full.
