Mk. 1:1-13 Honor's Day, Candler 4/10/30

Intro. A. April is the cruellest - - -
Mixing memory + desire
Stirring dull roots - - - -
2. It would not have said cruellest
a) Loneliest (in Atlanta)
b) Reluctantly, most painful.
Fragile petals push, roots push.
always so - live, stir, grow, change.
Leave warm O.
Child in barber shop.
3. Mix memory + desire. Not cruellest.
Is it?
Maybe rarest? richest?

I Mk. has room for it - Beg. of the Gospel - - -
1. Unusual man appeared in desert -
Stirring dull roots - - -
2. Very popular - Why? Emptied home, shops.
Character? Rough preaching?
3. Revived memory?
Elijah in the wilderness
Pleasant + important
Completer experience
Identity. Man of Eden.
Nac - V. Nam prisoners Grandmother.
Smart chic - amnesia
But - Hide, foolish, demonic.
4. Stirred Hope?
Most necessary. child, farmer.
Stones - when where. comes.
But - Maybe disguise for postponing
Farmer Oak
Fear. 9th sparrow Jn. ch. by window.
Betw. idea + reality - Shadow.
Maging of promise - - - - of course popular - Easy misery - - -
5. But not just mem., just hope.

II There you stand -
1. Dressed as memory - Elijah
2. Speaking of hope - Messiah
3. What leaves remem. or hoping? Both
Stuff of men - hope; stuff of hope - memory.
4. Remind tomorrow; hoped for yesterday.
Stirring dull roots. Would not have said cruellest. Would you?
